HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1887.

NUMBER 117

DIED IN HIS BOOTS.

The Notorious Craig Toller and Three of His Band Killed by a Sheriff's posse While Resisting Arrest.

PEACE ONCE MORE IN ROWAN.

Special to Louisville Commercial.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 22.—As my dispatches yesterday foretold, the Rowan county war broke out with renewed vigor this morning. The good people of the county becoming tired of waiting on the law's delay organized themselves into "Law and Order Men." Last Monday night five men from Farmer's went to Cincinnati, and bought ammunition, guns and breast-plates, preparatory to making the attack.

Last night the posse were arranged and the battle set for this morning in the broad and open light of the day, as by having daylight for it, no great danger would be incurred by the women and children. Accordingly, about 8:30 o'clock, determined men to the number of one hundred and sixty, all armed with Winchester repeating rifles, came into Morehead under charge of Sheriff Hodge, to serve a warrant on Craig Toller, charging him with false swearing in issuing the warrant for the arrest of the Logan boys, killed several weeks ago.

As one of the Sheriff's posse was crossing the railroad, near the water tank, about fifty yards east of the Ralphe's Cottage hotel, and before any attempt had been made to serve the warrant, Craig Toller, who was near the hotel, fired at the posse. The man dodged behind a pile of lumber, and Toller and his two cousins, Bud and Jay Toller, and Hiram Cooper went into the hotel. Then the posse came up to the brush behind the hotel, and immediately opened fire upon the building. The house was soon surrounded, but at something of a distance, as the Sheriff's men cared to get within range of the deadly guns the Toller knew so well how to use.

After firing had been kept up for probably three quarters of an hour, the Toller men attempted to leave the hotel and cross the railroad to a hotel on the opposite side. While making this last-ditch attempt, the notorious leader of the gang, which has been such a terror to Rowan county, fell pierced by four balls from the deadly Winchester, two going through his head and two through his breast. The others got to the opposite house, and fought the posse for some time, but finding the place less defensible than the hotel, they made an attempt to recross the railroad to their old position. In this they were unsuccessful, for all three of them were killed with rifle bullets.

After ascertaining that no more resistance would be offered, the posse picked up the dead men and placed them on the floor of the porch of the Cottage hotel. Investigation showed that only one of the Sheriff's posse was wounded, and that was Dr. Brown, who received an ugly flesh wound in the thigh.

The fighting was kept up for two hours, and, as some one remarked, sounded like the Fourth of July. During the fighting the most extraordinary condition prevailed amongst the women and children, who ran from their houses and rushed to the depot, hoping thereby to escape the bullets. The passenger train, which is due here at 1 o'clock, was delayed for two hours and a half on account of the shooting. As the fight began the engineer whistled for Morehead, and the Sheriff sent a detail of men to stop the train, but the engineer hearing the rapid firing, brought the train to a standstill before reaching the outskirts of the town.

HOPKINS COUNTY.

Madisonville Times.

Hon. Polk Landon will speak at the barbecue near Hanson July 9th.

George Rycroft, who was so badly hurt at Sebree, was able to get out Saturday and will soon be himself again.

There has been a great deal of flux in this section this season. Several have died of this disease, a majority of them being children.

Mr. Lawson N. Mitchell one of the most prominent citizens of the Nebo district died last Friday aged 61. He was an honorable man and a good citizen.

Last Sunday at 9 a. m., at the residence of F. M. Ashby, near town, Judge A. J. Sisk, officiating, Mr. Nat Carlick and Mrs. Millie Carlick were united in Marriage.

It is more than probable that we will have an ice factory here. Messrs. C. E. Morton and Mat Ray are negotiating for one, and will know in a few days as to the result. It is a most eligible site for the factory. We believe it would pay here.

The Democracy of this county are preparing to inaugurate a red-hot campaign in this county. Our local talent and speakers will stump the county, speakers from abroad will be here, and a grand rally and barbecue will be held late in July, and every effort will be made to bring out full vote. There is going to be fun, and don't you forget it.

Dynamite Goes off.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., June 22.—Yesterday there was quite a serious accident at one of the stone quarries about one mile from town. While Charles Shrewsbury was driving the drill there was a premature discharge of the dynamite, which badly damaged Shrewsbury and came very near killing another negro, whose name could not be learned, he being a stranger in this community.

The stranger was badly torn up, losing a part of his hand and leg. Dr. Alderson, the attending physician, says he is in danger of losing his life. It is most certain that amputation will be necessary. This is the most serious accident that has ever occurred at the stone quarries.

A HIDEOUS NIGHT.

THE DRAGON SEEN NEAR HAPPY HOLLOW.

It Must be the Willipus-Willipus.

Fulton Fultonian.

There is a little village nestled among the hills that border Redfoot Lake, in the extreme southwestern portion of Obion county, Tennessee, variously known as Happy Hollow and Callen. Its principal industry is saw-milling, and here large amounts of staves and lumber are made for market by Gardner and others. Callen is not quite as populous as Union City or Dyersburg, and notwithstanding the immense number of gallons of red-hot, bug-juley, tarantula-soup, tangiefoot and other vile whiskey there lapped, has quite a number of clever people all of whom are in the direction of the crowd in the lion in his den, the Douglas in his hall, but the bravery of these forest rangers and saw-mill manipulators, as we learn by grapevine telegraph, was sorely put to the test last Wednesday night.

About the hour of eight a strange sound was heard some distance off in the woods in the direction of the crowd. A wild sound, such as had been heard in all that region never before. It was made by some huge and unknown animal, as all the crowd believed. A number of the people, some fifteen or twenty, armed with double-barreled shot guns, with nine blue whistles in their hands, at once started in the direction of the fearful sound. They made their way, without a word, through the dark woods for the distance of a mile without seeing anything.

At last, about a mile from the hotel, they saw a strange beast seemed louder and louder and approaching nearer and nearer, when the leader who walked about the thing in front of the crowd in a loud whisper exclaimed: "Halt! Halt!" In a moment more, in an open glade, some fifty yards in advance of the thing, the full view was revealed, its large eyes shining in the darkness like globes of living fire; its jaws were gaping wide and its six-foot tongue lolling out, dropped foam like a tired dog. It was indeed a fearful sight, and the party was almost paralyzed with terror. No one dared to shoot for fear the thing might charge the party. All lay down and no one dared to move; but they could not keep their eyes off the infernal beast. It was between thirty and forty feet in length, and in the middle of the body given by those who saw it satisfies us that it was the same we described last week. The party say that the beast emitted a horrid yellow, dirty and stinking odor, ferocious smelling like dead bodies that had putrid in the sun. They watched the horrible creature for full half-hour, when it started in the opposite direction from them with terrific speed. What convinces us more than anything else that it was the dread and unaccountable Willipus-Willipus is, that the men report that when the thing started, it opened its jaws to the fullest extent and black, hot looking smoke proceeded from its great smoking nostrils, and ever and anon an oblong ball of fire four or five feet in length and of the circumference of a water-bucket, was projected from between the creature's horrid yellow, dirty and stinking teeth, flying twenty or thirty yards and exploding with a noise like a bomb. We hope to hear more of this thing, which will puzzle all the great naturalists and may do immense damage in some mysterious way. Whether any of the Callen or Happy Hollow party were seen by it, we know not. It has been seen, but seeing no negroes in the crowd did not attack them.

LATER.—It is rumored that the monster was seen early yesterday near Jordan on the State Line road by a party of colored men whom it chased through the woods, they escaping by climbing the trees. We shall send out a special reporter and may give a further account of its movements next week.
